

City council sets date for mayoral special election

by Peter Moralez

Thomas Gwosdz, City Attorney of Victoria, announced at the most recent city council meeting, "On Saturday, July 3, 2021, a Special Election will be held in the City of Victoria to replace the vacancy left by the untimely death of Rawley McCoy. In the interim, City Councilwoman, and Mayor Pro-Tem, Josie Solis, will serve as acting Mayor."

As Mayor Pro-Tem it is Solis' responsibility, in the event of the inability of the elected mayor, to fulfill his or her term, the mayor Pro-Tem takes over the day-to-day responsibilities until a new mayor is elected.

"Like so many others, I was completely shocked by the death of both the Mayor of Victoria, and a good friend," Solis said. "He has passed on, but I feel it's important that city council does all it can to follow through on issues that were significant to Victoria, and thus significant to the mayor."

Solis has served on the Victoria City Council since 2012, and is both the first female, and first Hispanic to serve as Mayor of Victoria. Her current term as city councilwoman is up in May, however she was running unopposed, which created an electoral victory for her. With the announcement of the special election for mayor, Solis indicated that she would not seek the position of Mayor of Victoria.

"The only reason I took over the role of mayor Po-Tem was to serve Mayor McCoy," Solis said. "It was never my intention to serve as mayor of Victoria. Furthermore, in the event I did run for mayor, I would firstly have to resign my position as city councilwoman, leaving the Latino community without representation on city council, and that is something that I don't want."

In the short time Solis will serve as acting mayor she indicated that, "I want to conduct myself in a similar fashion as Mayor McCoy carried himself. I think he wanted the best for all Victorians; he really served to unite all the people in Victoria. I want to do the same thing," she said. "If we come together in unity, we can accomplish many goals. If we do this, we can carry on the legacy that Mayor McCoy has started."

Solis said she wants to continue to work on the city budget, the VISD Bond issue, with the Southside Coalition to improve Martin Luther King Park on Callis Street, working to revitalize both the downtown area as well as the Southside, working on affordable housing, and Solis feels that it is imperative that business return to the Southside.

"The former Newman's Grocery Store located on the corner of Water and Laurent Streets is just sitting there, as well as the old laundromat that is on Water Street. Residents of the Southside are limited in both the groceries and laundry that they can carry if they

Victoria Police Department seeks to improve programs, promote safety

by Robert Arredondo, Victoria chief of police

I often tell our officers that we do our job not only for the citizens of Victoria but for our own families and ourselves. We are members of this community, and we want our families to live in a safe city where police officers and community members work together to reduce crime and the fear of crime.

My predecessor, J.J. Craig, left excellent policies in place that help to accomplish this goal. As communities around the nation have tough conversations about police reform, we have consistently found that our department meets and exceeds high standards for public service. This commitment is reflected in our recognition by the Texas Police Chiefs Association, which honors agencies that comply with 166 best practices designed to facilitate effective service, reduce risk and protect the rights of citizens.

Zuck announces filing for VISD school board trustee

Dale D. Zuck has announced his candidacy for the Victoria Independent School District School Board District #4 on the May 1, 2021 ballot. District 4 encompasses the city of Victoria southeast residents and much of Victoria County commissioner's precinct #4.

Dale Zuck said, "I am running for this position on the VISD school board because the taxpayers and students deserve better."

Mr. Zuck has observed the VISD school board for many years with utmost respect and appreciation for the decisions they face. He sees teachers and administrators struggling to deal with the problems a modern school system face. Unfortunately, he notes the school board has made numerous decisions that have resulted in low-test scores, declining student attendance, low teacher morale and high turn-over. He noted we have all witnessed poor property maintenance, a large debt, high taxes and now the biggest bond proposal ever. Zuck has determined that many of our district's problems can be attributed to the school board of trustees' actions and inactions.

Mr. Zuck recognizes that some of the problems which much be addressed include: A) Personnel pay and high turnover. The last bond defeat was attributed to the school board's inattention to teacher pay. Many of our best teachers have retired or left the district. Our teachers are significantly underpaid and because of that fact we are unable to recruit the best educators. B) Student graduation and learning must be addressed. Our district's overall STAAR test score according to the Texas Education Agency ranks VISD at the top of the bottom 12 percent of all Texas public school systems. While test scores are not the only measure of success, it is a yardstick to achievement. C) Our school buildings and facilities are in a state of disrepair. The direct reason is that the school board has not used the power of the annual budget to maintain and upgrade what the taxpayers have given to them to manage. As a representative with VISD and architect consultant said, the problem is "deferred maintenance".

Mr. Zuck states: "Of course it takes money to run a first-class school system. Unfortunately, we are not there at this time. It requires correct priorities to budget tax dollars for an optimum result."

Mr. Zuck has studied the facts for years and asks all citizens to look at the facts, ask if they want more of the same or if they want a better school system that produces better results. Mr. Zuck believes it is time for a change because the mistakes of the past must not continue.

Mr. Zuck will be a representative who is not afraid to demand the best for our community. He will be an advocate for our taxpayers, teachers and students.

Dale Zuck is a lifetime resident of Victoria, Texas. He attended VISD schools and graduated Victoria High in 1975. Mr. Zuck attended Texas A&M University earning a Bachelor of Science. He attended the University of Houston, Victoria and graduated with a Master of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies with an emphasis in Psychology and Business. His subsequent employment has included the Guadalupe Blanco River Authority, Elder Oil Tools and the Texas Employment Commission. He has been the owner and insurance agent for Rampart Financial Group since 1995.

Mr. Zuck is the son of the late William D. and Dolores Ann Zuck, both retired employees of VISD. He is married 34 years to Elida Pardo Zuck. They have one son, Nathan Zuck, a Texas A&M graduate, who lives in Austin, Texas where he is a senior clinical research coordinator with the University of Texas Medical Branch.

Mr. Zuck has served and held leadership positions in many organizations and is a fiscal conservative serving as a Republican Party precinct chair. Some of his current and past leadership activities include Boy Scouts of America, Troop 368; president for the Optimist Club(s) of Victoria & Cuero, Leadership Victoria, Leadership Team for the Catholic Diocese of Victoria Engaged Encounter Ministry, Team Leader of the Catholic Inmate Services and currently serves as Parish Council president for the St. Joseph Catholic Church.

UHV preliminary spring enrollment shows growth

Contributed art.

As the University of Houston-Victoria and other universities across the nation continue to weather the COVID-19 pandemic, the university has received positive news: preliminary spring enrollment is up more than 4 percent compared with this time last year.

As of Wednesday, February 3, the university's 12th class day when preliminary enrollment must be reported to the state, UHV had 4,514 students enrolled, a 4.5 percent increase from last year's preliminary spring enrollment of 4,319. The growth included increases in enrollment, especially undergraduate student enrollment, in all three of the university's academic schools.

"I continue to be encouraged by our enrollment numbers because I believe it reflects UHV's ability to bring about positive change in the lives of our students and their families," UHV President Bob Glenn said. "As the word spreads about the quality and effect of what we are doing, I expect to see steady improvement and growth."

Each of UHV's three academic schools saw an increase in overall enrollment. The largest increase was in the School of Business Administration, which saw a 6.7 percent increase from last year's preliminary enrollment. The School of Education, Health Professions & Human Development saw a 2.8 percent increase, and the School of Arts & Sciences experienced growth of 1.3 percent.

One element that contributed to the university's growth was an overall increase of 4.9 percent in undergraduate admissions, including a 14.6 percent increase in the education school, 5.1 percent in the business school and 1.5 percent in Arts & Sciences. The School of Business Administration also experienced a 10 percent increase in graduate enrollment.

Another area of growth for the university was an increase in student retention at all levels. Overall, the university saw 8.4 percent more students return to continue their education at UHV compared with last spring. That includes a 13.8 percent increase in graduate students, 10.2 percent in returning freshmen, 3.3 percent in sophomores, 2.3 percent in juniors and 8.3 percent in returning seniors. The university's international student enrollment stayed consistent with last year's numbers.

In addition to the growth in preliminary student enrollment compared with this time in 2020, UHV has seen an increase in the number of credit hours students are taking. Preliminary numbers show students taking 42,277 hours, a 3.7 percent increase compared with last year.

This is the second semester in a row that UHV experienced growth despite the pandemic, which has caused institutions across the nation to see decreases in enrollment. UHV was well positioned to handle the shift to online learning because the university has a history of offering quality online classes long before the pandemic, said Jose Cantu, UHV vice president for enrollment management.

"UHV has consistently bucked national enrollment trends, and a major part of that is the quality of the people at our university," Cantu said. "All of our staff members work tirelessly to serve students' needs, from recruiters and academic advisors to the marketing team, financial aid advisors and others. In addition, we have outstanding faculty members who match that commitment by bringing excellence to learning both online and in person. The increases we've seen are evidence of UHV's universal commitment to excellence."

La Casa Blanca – Señaló que hasta la fecha 31 estados han confirmado que pondrán la vacuna a la disposición de todos los adultos el 19 de abril. Biden anuncia que 90% de los adultos podrán acceder a vacunas contra el coronavirus para el 19 de abril. El presidente Joe Biden anunció que el 90 por ciento de la población adulta en Estados Unidos podrá acceder a la vacuna contra el coronavirus y tendrá un centro de vacunación a cinco millas de su residencia el 19 de abril.

zo, según reportó la página web usnews.com. Luego siguió Mississippi el 16 de marzo, Virginia Occidental el 22, Arizona dos días después y Texas a partir de este lunes 29.

Kudos to the Victoria Department of Public Health

by Barbara Breazeale

It seems that most of the time, we see people write columns who criticize and tear down, but rarely praise. This week I had the pleasure of volunteering to help at our Victoria Community Center, the site of Covid 19 vaccine shots. Volunteers showed up at 7 am and were given a short debriefing on what to do.

When people first walked through the door, they had already acquired a time for their shot and a special code and number. 3,000 people were set up to be vaccinated that day.

Out in front, we had Emergency Management along with the Police In charge of having people park and come into the facility.

Inside, they entered one of the large rooms with up to ten people manning a computer and checking them in. Their QRL code was scanned and checked in. They were given a blue card which told them the time and date of their second shot. A team of computer specialists were in the area in case there was a problem.

People were then instructed to line up and wait for a medical person to give them a shot.

There were 20 stations set up of medical personnel giving shots. In one area, hidden from view, there was a team assembling shots and delivering them to the vaccine stations. At the vaccine stations they had to not only give the shot but document which arm it was given in for control purposes.

People then exited the room, walked to the largest meeting hall at the Community Center where they were instructed to wait 15 minutes in case, they had an allergic reaction. In that large hall, EMT crews were waiting.

I was so impressed. There was very little waiting. People commented all day on how wonderful the system was, how fast, efficient and how good the people were who gave the shots.

Normally in instances like this, you have the long waits in line, people complaining but I saw nothing of that all day! Everyone worked like a well-oiled machine.

Funny Moments when people are being people.

1. Why do you come to get a shot with a sweatshirt and long-sleeved shirt on?

2. Why is it that you tell people to go to the empty chair to get the shot, and they say "What chair?"

3. Why do people ask volunteers like myself medical questions?

4. Why do they ask volunteers who are standing up directing people, how they can fix their birthday that is incorrect on their paperwork?

5. One lady wanted to know why we don't give vaccine to Walmart and others. You would have been proud of me, I resisted saying something sarcastic.

Mr. David Gonzales and his staff really have this and should be proud of the job they are doing.

Everyone was pleasant, professional, happy and easy to work with.

If you want the shot, you are in for a treat. Victoria is a prime example of a well-managed team.

There was only one medical person who really jammed the shot in and hurt people, but I cannot remember their name. Just kidding!

Netflix estrenará los nuevos capítulos de la serie producida por Vancouver Media el próximo día 23 de julio.

Apenas 10 días después de estrenar la primera temporada de Sky Rojo, Netflix ha anunciado hoy la fecha para el debut de los nuevos capítulos de la serie de Alex Pina y Esther Martínez Lobato, creadores de la exitosa La casa de papel.

Será el próximo 23 de julio cuando la plataforma publique la segunda temporada de esta serie, que estará integrada por 8 capítulos de 25 minutos de duración. Una estrategia poco habitual en Netflix, que suele espaciar más tiempos el estreno de sus series originales.

Además, la Comisión sólo otorgará una audiencia sobre las cuestiones presentadas durante el período de comentarios públicos y no retiradas. La fecha límite para presentar comentarios públicos es 30 días después de que se publique el aviso en el periódico. Si una solicitud se recibe a tiempo, la fecha límite para solicitar una audiencia de caso impugnado será prolongada a 30 días después del envío de la respuesta a comentarios.

Si la petición la hace un grupo o una asociación, uno o más miembros que tienen derecho a solicitar una audiencia deben ser identificados por su nombre y dirección física. Los intereses que el grupo o la asociación buscan proteger también deben ser identificados. También puede presentar sus modificaciones propuestas a la solicitud/al permiso que satisfarían sus inquietudes.

Si una solicitud de audiencia se recibe a tiempo, después del cierre de todos los períodos de comentarios y de petición que aplican, el director ejecutivo enviará la solicitud y cualquier petición para una audiencia de caso impugnado a los Comisionados de la TCEQ para su consideración durante una reunión programada de la Comisión. is one of only a handful of agencies statewide to receive this gold-standard recognition for three consecutive four-year terms. This strong foundation has allowed me to focus on finding creative ways to improve our department and our community's safety even further.

I have always had a passion for crime reduction, and data is an important tool in this area. VPD uses statistics to predict when and where certain types of crimes are likely to happen so that we can address the causes. I hope to continue identifying data we can provide to our officers to help them prevent predictable crimes like vehicle burglaries, which in turn will free up resources to address assaults and other types of crimes that are harder to predict.

Community engagement is another important component of crime reduction. We are working to expand our use of social media to educate the public about simple steps that they can take to protect themselves and others from becoming victims, such as locking cars and hiding valuables to prevent theft. We also recently hosted a meeting with local faith leaders to provide important safety information that they can share with their communities, and we hope to host such meetings regularly going forward.

We are working to launch a new program called Volunteers in Patrol (VIP) that will empower made it crystal clear: we had outgrown our building.

August will mark the four-year anniversary of Hurricane Harvey when, due to the outpouring of generosity from individuals, foundations and corporations across the country, the Food Bank's warehouse was packed so full of food that our forklifts barely fit through the aisles. Before Harvey, we knew that a larger facility would be needed in the future; we have had to turn down donations of healthy, perishable foods due to our limited cooler and freezer space. However, the hurricane

In 2017, even before Hurricane Harvey, the Food Bank was already experiencing a 34 percent increase in need compared to 2016. Immediately following the hurricane, the need jumped to 42 percent. What is more, every one of the eleven counties in our service area were included in the federal disaster declaration. With so many households affected by the storm, we were being asked to feed more people than ever before.

Throughout the next year we began to carefully explore our options for growth. Would it make more sense to add on to our existing facility, to buy a piece of land and build something completely new, or to look for an existing building that we could renovate to suit our needs?

In February 2019, the decision was made to purchase the former Adgraphics building at 801 South Laurent, a facility twice the size of our current home that would need extensive renovations including mold and asbestos abatement. We began working with architects to retrofit the building for our needs while simultaneously planning a capital campaign to raise money for the renovations.

Of course, 2020 brought the COVID pandemic and a 56 percent increase in the need for our services. We provided over 8.7 million pounds of food to nearly 99,000 households totaling more than 300,000 people. Despite how busy we were, we made progress with our fundraising and were able to finish the design plans, put the project out for bids and hire a contractor.

Renovations began in December and will be completed later this year. Our new location will have 31,000 square feet of warehouse space, nearly 6,000 square feet of refrigerator and freezer space, and 7,000 square feet of office space. Separate staff and volunteer/public parking lots round out the new features, and if you have ever visited our current facility you understand why we are excited to have more parking.

Most importantly, a larger warehouse and more freezer/cooler space means that the Food Bank of the Golden Crescent will be able to feed more people. We love serving south Texas and consider it a privilege to be helping heal the hurt of hunger for our friends and neighbors.

La Comisión sólo puede conceder una solicitud de una audiencia de caso impugnado sobre los temas que el solicitante haya presentado en sus comentarios oportunos que no fueron retirados posteriormente.

Si se concede una audiencia, el tema de la audiencia estará limitado a cuestiones de hecho en disputa o cuestiones mixtas de hecho y de derecho que son pertinentes y materiales a la decisión de la Comisión sobre la solicitud que se hayan presentado durante el período de comentarios. Si ciertos criterios se cumplen, la TCEQ puede actuar sobre una solicitud para renovar un permiso sin proveer una oportunidad de una audiencia de caso impugnado.

residents to prevent crime in their communities. Residents will receive training to learn about crime prevention and identifying suspicious activity; then, they will connect with their neighbors to patrol their communities and educate residents about how to protect themselves from crime. Expect to hear more about this program in the coming months.

Another one of my goals is to increase officer retention. The City of Victoria has demonstrated a commitment to investing in officers; as an example, the City Council approved a pay increase for first responders during the last budget cycle. However, I can tell you from experience that officers are inspired to stay with their departments for other reasons besides money. Senior officers often seek advancement opportunities, which is why I plan to create more opportunities in our department for officers to work in specialized roles that interest them.

In addition, officers need to know they are loved and supported. I make it a point to check in on our officers and let them know they have a support system to protect their well-being and mental health. I also take every opportunity to let our community know about the important work our officers are doing and how much we appreciate and value our community's support.

I am excited to be here, and I feel blessed to have the support of such a great community. All of us at the Victoria Police Department want to protect the community we love, and we are determined to work diligently and put our best foot forward to make that happen.

Roberto Arredondo is the police chief for the City of Victoria Police Department.
